

Spring CE Seminar

Friday, April 26, 2024

The APlex Event Center

701 Woodward Ave, Alpena, MI

7.5 CE

Meets Dental Ethics
and Jurisprudence
1 CE requirement

Event Schedule

7:30am-8:00am	Check-in, Grab-n-Go breakfast options
8:00am-11:00am	Beware and Beware: An Ethics, Legal, and Michigan New Administrative Rules Update Pamela Zarkowski, BSDH, MPH, JD <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify five ethical principles that apply to providing oral health care services. Understand an ethical decision-making model to assist in resolving frequently encountered ethical dilemmas. List some contractual responsibilities for both the patient and provider. Describe tort principles, including negligence, the duty to get informed consent, informed refusal, and patient abandonment. Highlight the elements of good record-keeping. Discuss the current legal duties that can be delegated to allied health personnel in Michigan. Review key sections of the Michigan Administrative Rules.
11:00am-12:00pm	Ergonomics for the Dental Professional Ben Freeland, OTR/L, CEAS I What is ergonomics and why does it matter? Let's talk injuries, common injuries, risk factors, how we can solve them, and environmental adaptations. Let's get moving!
12:00pm-1:00pm	Lunch provided
1:00pm-3:00pm	Hearing Laughter! Seeing Smiles! A School and Community Oral Health Update & What's New with Kindergarten Oral Health Assessments (KOHA) Dawn Marie Strehl, RDH, CDIPC, Elisa Dack, RDH, MHSA, & Elizabeth Johnson, RDH, BS An overview on oral health in public health and what's new: the ins and outs of PA161 and Mobile Dental Licenses, including a deep dive into the Kindergarten Oral Health Assessment Program (KOHA) SB280. Integration of private practice and public health dentistry: what does this look like? Gain a clinical understanding of oral health assessments (D0191). Panel discussion to follow.
3:00pm-4:30pm	Civilian Response to an Active Shooter Trooper Jason Kunath The objective of the presentation is to stress the use of avoid, deny, defend (run, hide, fight) to the audience, to better equip them to handle an active shooter event, and other high stress events.

Course Fees

SSDHA MEMBER	$20
STUDENT	$50
MDHA MEMBER	$200
RDH/RDA/STAFF	$275
DDS	$350

Payment

Make check payable to:
SSDHA or scan

DUE BY 4/12/24

Register

Registration & check can be mailed to:
SSDHA
619 Aqua View Dr
Alpena, MI 49707

DUE BY 4/12/24

Mail in registration

Each attendee must complete a registration.

Name on CE: _____

Address: _____

Phone #: _____

Email: _____

Office: _____

Available upon request:

Vegetarian Gluten free

DDS ONLY:

Are you seeking AGD/PACE credit for this course?

NO YES AGD# _____